Registration

Registration will open in April 2017. There will also be options to sign-up to dip into other conferences taking part in Queenstown Research Week at the same time.

- Early bird registration (until 31 May) NZ$600 (incl. GST)
- Full registration (after 31 May and until 20 August) NZ$660 (incl. GST)
- Late registration (after 20 August) NZ$720 (incl. GST)
- Delegate 1-day registration NZ$330 (incl. GST)
- Student registration NZ$440 (incl. GST)

Student Registrations

A student is defined as a holder of a student identification card from a recognised tertiary or secondary educational institution or international student card. Students must be studying full time to qualify for the discounted rate.

Payment Options

Payment MUST be received by 31 May 2017 to be eligible for the Early Bird Rates. Any unpaid registrations as at 1 June will automatically convert to the full registration rate. All registration fees must be made in full prior to the start of the conference, any unpaid registrations will automatically be cancelled.

Accommodation

Rydges Hotel is the conference hotel, and discounted accommodation can be booked through the registration website in May. Alternative accommodation options nearby are provided below.

Social functions

Back by popular demand, the conference ice-breaker will be a scenic cruise on Lake Wakatipu from Queenstown on board the iconic steamship TSS Earnslaw, which will disembark at Walter Peak High Country Farm for a BBQ dinner.

The conference dinner, at the end of the conference, will be held at the nearby Crowne Plaza Hotel.

Entitlements

The registration fee entitles delegates to the following:

- All sessions
- Morning and afternoon teas
- Lunches
- Social functions

Special Requirements

Please give details on your registration form of any special diet or disability assistance required.

Entrance to the Conference

Each delegate will receive a conference lanyard and name badge on registration. The lanyard will be your official pass and must be clearly visible at all times to obtain entry to all sessions and to all included social functions. The Conference Managers expect appropriate behaviour from attendees and reserve the right to revoke the badge and privileges of anyone behaving in an inappropriate manner.

Disclaimer

In the event of industrial disruption, or other unforeseen circumstances that disrupt the conference, the conference organisers accept no responsibility. The information on the conference website and in the printed collateral is correct at the time of publication. However, the conference organisers reserve the right to change information. The conference organisers disclaim any and all liability to any person in respect of the consequences of any failure to operate, accident or injury which may occur on services reserved.

The right is reserved to add, withdraw or substitute speakers and vary the advertised programme. If the conference is cancelled for any reason beyond the organiser's control, there is no right of exchange and no obligation is assumed by the organisers for arranging a substitute speaker. In the unlikely event of cancellation of the conference, the liability of the organisers is limited to the return of paid fees and where an event may be postponed and the option of re-attending is not suitable, a cancellation can be made by writing to the conference organiser and on acceptance, there would be a return of paid fees less $100 for administration costs.

Insurance

Delegates are encouraged to take out personal travel and medical insurance which includes loss or damage of personal possessions, including loss of registration and accommodation fees through cancellation.

Privacy

There will not be a list of conference participants.

Tips for Overseas Travelers

Important! If you are not a resident of Australia or New Zealand, you may need to get a Visitor's Permit. Certain nationals need to have their passport endorsed with a Visitor's Visa before departure. This process may take up to one month. Delegates should visit the New Zealand Immigration Service pages for more information.

The New Zealand currency is cents (c) and dollars ($), with 100 cents equal to one dollar. Coins are in the denominations of 10c, 20c, 50c, $1, and $2. There are $5, $10, $20, $50, and $100 notes available. One New Zealand dollar is worth approximately 75 US cents.

There are automatic teller machines in the airport and throughout most cities, should you wish to withdraw cash on your credit or debit cards.
