

ANZCCART

AEC Member of the Year Award

This award has been created by ANZCCART to recognise the excellent service offered to Animal Ethics Committees by their members throughout Australia and New Zealand.

What will the award cover?

As a part of the award, ANZCCART will cover an all-expenses paid trip for the recipient to attend the current year's ANZCCART Conference. The prize includes airfares (best discount fare of the day), conference registration (including all social functions that are part of the conference programme) and accommodation at the conference venue for the recipient only.

Eligibility criteria:

To be eligible for this award, you must be:

- Currently, or recently, serving as a member of at least one New Zealand AEC
- Providing exceptional service to an AEC
- Available to attend the current year's ANZCCART Conference
- Prepared to participate in all conference sessions (audience participation qualifies)
- Be nominated, either by yourself or by someone else in accordance with these guidelines

Nomination Process:

Nominations may be made by members themselves, fellow AEC members, AEC Chairs, AEC Secretaries or Sponsoring Institutions.

Nominations must be received in writing (via email) and should not exceed one A4 page (12 point font) in length. The nomination should clearly outline the duration and level of support given to your AEC and where appropriate, acknowledge service to other AECs and other relevant activities. You should clearly state why you believe the nominee deserves this award and outline how this might be of benefit to the recipient. All nominations received by ANZCCART will be regarded as current for a period of three years from the time of receipt.

The deadline for submissions is 29 June 2018

ANZCCART reserves the right to vary these conditions as required or not make an award if no suitable nominations are received. The decision of the judging panel will be final.
